REPORT AND

RECOMMENDATION

ON GUILTY PLEA

On June 19, 2008, defendant Jill R. Thames (Thames), together with her counsel, Joseph L. Howard, appeared before the undersigned magistrate judge and was advised of the charges, the penalties and the right to appear before a United States District Judge. After orally consenting to proceed before a magistrate judge, Thames entered a plea of guilty to Counts I and V of the Indictment.

After being sworn, Thames was orally examined by the undersigned magistrate judge in open court as required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. Thames also was given the advice required by that Rule. Finally, Thames was given a full opportunity to address the court and ask questions.

Counsel for the government and counsel for Thames were given the opportunity to suggest additional questions by the court. Moreover, both counsel orally certified that they were of the opinion that the pleas were knowing, intelligent and voluntary, and that there was a factual basis for Thames's pleas of guilty to Counts I and V of the Indictment.

Therefore, I find and conclude that: (1) the pleas are knowing, intelligent, and voluntary; (2) there is a factual basis for the pleas; (3) the provisions of Rule 11 and any other provisions of the law governing the submission of guilty pleas have been complied with; (4) a petition to enter a plea of guilty, on a form approved by the court, was completed by Thames, Thames's counsel and counsel for the government, and such petition was placed in the court file; (5) the plea agreement is in writing and is filed in the court file; (6) there were no other agreements or stipulations other than as contained in the written plea agreement.

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO JUDGE LAURIE SMITH CAMP that:

1. She accept the guilty plea and find the defendant, Jill R. Thames, guilty of the crimes set forth in Counts I and V of the Indictment to which Thames tendered a guilty plea;
2. She accept the written plea agreement with the understanding that the court is not bound by the parties' stipulations, but may with the aid of the presentence report, determine the facts relevant to sentencing.

ADMONITION

Pursuant to NECrimR 57.3 any objection to this Report and Recommendation shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court within ten (10) business days after being served with a copy of this Report and Recommendation. Failure to timely object may constitute a waiver of any such objection. The brief in support of any objection shall be filed at the time of filing such objection. Failure to file a brief in support of any objection may be deemed an abandonment of the objection.

DATED this 19th day of June, 2008.
